

White Wines

Dry and Crisp Wines Listed from Driest to Fruitiest

	Glass/ Btl
Sauvignon Blanc, Geyser Peak, Sonoma County	$8/ $26
Sauvignon Blanc, Allan Scott, New Zealand	$8.5/$27
Pinot Grigio, LaGaria, Italy	$7.5/$25
Riesling, Kendall-Jackson, Vintner's Reserve, California	$8/$26
Riesling, Snowy Peaks, Estes Park, (Twin Owls Steakhouse Label)	$32
Kabinett, Schmitt Sohne, Piesporter Michelsberg, Germany	$26
White Zinfandel, Laterre, California	$6.5/ NA
White Zinfandel, Beringer, California	$19

Full Fruit, Full Flavor Wines Listed from Driest to Fruitiest

Pinot Grigio, Santa Margherita, Italy	$37
Chardonnay, Laterre, California	$6.5/ NA
Chardonnay, Sterling, Vintner's Reserve, California	$9/ $27
Chardonnay, Kendall-Jackson, Vintner's Reserve, California	$31
Blend, Conundrum, California	$39

Sparkling Wines listed from Driest to Fruitiest

Chandon, Brut Classic, California	$33
Veuve Du Vernay, Brut, France	$5/$22
Ariel, Sparkling Blanc, Non-Alcoholic	$18
Martini & Rossi, Asti, Italy	$26
La Spinetta, Moscato D'Asti, Italy (1/2 Bottle, Dessert wine)	$16

Additional white wines are available on Mrs. Stacey's Private Wine Cellar list

Red Wines

Light Bodied Fruity Red Wines listed from Driest to Fruitiest

	Glass/ Btl
Merlot, Laterre, California	$6.5/ NA
Merlot, Sterling, Vintner's Reserve, California	$9/ $28
Pinot Noir, Carmel Road, Monterey	$9.5/$32
La Crema, Sonoma	$35
Beaujolais, Louis Jadot, Beaujolais-Villages, Served Chilled	$8/ $27

Full Bodied Red Wines listed from Driest to Fruitiest

Blend, Escudo Rojo, Cabernet Blend, Rothschild, Chile	$9.5/$32
Red Wine, Juan Gil, 100% Monastrell Grapes, Spain	$40
Cabernet Sauvignon, Beringer, Knights Valley,	$10.5/$36
Meritage, Hahn, Central Coast	$33
Cabernet Sauvignon, Sterling, Vintner's Reserve, California	$9/ $28
Cabernet Sauvignon, Laterre, California	$6.5/ NA
Cabernet-Merlot, Greg Norman, Limestone Coast, Australia	$35
Shiraz, Laterre, California	$6.5/ NA
Shiraz, Sterling, Vintner's Reserve, California	$9/ $31
Shiraz, Shoofly, Australia	$8.5/ $31
Shiraz, Woop Woop, Australia	$34
Shiraz, d'Arenberg, Footbolt, Australia	$38
Zinfandel, Sebastiani, Sonoma County	$10/$32
Zinfandel, Seven Deadly Zins, Michael David, Lodi	$36
Dessert Sherry, Alvear Pedro Ximenez 1927, Spain (375ml)	$10 (2oz)/ $34

Additional red wines available on Mrs. Stacey's Private Wine Cellar list

Mrs. Stacey's Private Wine Cellar List

Dessert Sherry, Alvear Pedro Ximenez 1927 (375ml) $10/glass $34

Boasts a dark, amber color as well as an extraordinary nose of crème brulee, liquefied nuts, marmalade, and maple syrup. A very viscous dessert wine with huge flavors of raisins. Robert Parker~96

Chardonnay, Cakebread, Napa Valley, 2007 $59

Bright and tangy with smooth texture. Snappy, lifted acidity, lovely balanced fruit and a smashing finish. Cakebread's wines are made to be enjoyed with food!

Pinot Noir, Domaine Chandon, Carneros Appellation, 2006 $63

Aromas reveal layers of cinnamon, fig, nutmeg, and toffee with note of spicy, French oak. Flavors of black cherry, caramel, and a subtle hint of truffle.

Cabernet Sauvignon, Far Niente, Napa Valley, 2004 $175

The king of cabs! 100% cabernet. Subtle blackberry and cassis flavor complimented by cedar oak aromas as well as the typical "dusty" components traditionally found among the finest soils of Oakville.

Champagne, Moët & Chandon, White Star $70

Very delicate with aromas of flowers, hazelnuts and biscuits. Soft with a fruity finish of peaches. It is no mistake why this is the most popular champagne in the world.

Pinot Noir, Bernardus, Monterey, 2006 $55

This pinot has deep, dark robe and a soft velvety texture. Flavors of ripe plum and candied black cherry with aromas of ripe jammy red fruits, accented by toasted oak.

Meritage, Beaulieu Vineyards (BV), Tapestry, 2005 $70

A Bordeaux blend with primarily Rutherford Cab, aged in French and American oak. The wine shows ripe black cherry aromas mixed with toasty coffee. Elements of dark cocoa blend nicely with cherry-plum and vanilla spice.

Red Wine, Joseph Phelps, Le Mistral, 2006 $75

Intense, full-blown flavors of wild berry, dried currant and a medley of dried herbs. A very complex wine inspired by the Rhone Valley. Ends with a dash of pepper and spice.

Merlot, Frogs Leap, Napa Valley, 2005 (100% Organic) $65

Classic aromas of cherry, blueberry and sage. Notes of green tea and tobacco highlight the palate. The wine is soft with a plush texture that finishes delightfully.

Super Tuscan, Tenuta di Arceno, Arcanum I, 2004 $125

A velvety smooth wine consisting of mostly cabernet franc. So soft in the mouth and a finish that holds up and pairs with any hearty dish perfectly. Have this one decanted early and taste the difference in the wine from the beginning of the meal to the end.